

Get involved in the biggest and most fun literacy competition for schools in the USA!

Enter your students into Word Mania USA, the biggest literacy competition in the USA, and you could win a share of thousands of dollars in prizes. LiteracyPlanet's Word Mania USA is an exciting way to engage students in developing their literacy skills. Competitors race against the clock to build as many words as they can in three minutes – how many words can your students make?

How can I take part in Word Mania?

To get involved and access to LiteracyPlanet for the first time, register for Word Mania USA at www.wordmania.com/us/.

Schools that already use LiteracyPlanet have automatic access to Word Mania. Students who already have logins can play by logging in and clicking on the Word Mania icon, or through the free Word Mania app.

If you're a teacher from a LiteracyPlanet school that doesn't have access speak to your school administrator about adding more students free for the competition period or email support@literacyplanet.com to arrange competition logins for additional students who aren't already using LiteracyPlanet in their classroom.
